

ICAR-DMAPR Bagged Best Stall Award

(ICAR-DMAPR, Anand, 22/02/2019)

ICAR-Directorate of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants Research (DMAPR) showcasing stall bagged the best display award (First) at the Krishidham Expo-2019 for its innovative and informative display of technologies. The Krishidham Expo-2019 held from 15-17th, February 2019, at ICAR-Central Potato Research Institute (CPRI), at Modipuram, Meerut, Uttar Pradesh was organised by ICAR-CPRI, Shimla in partnership with HiFi conference and events Pvt Ltd, Noida. The Krishidham Expo-2019 has over 40 exhibitors from the ICAR, state agricultural universities and industry. The best stall award was presented to the ICAR-DMAPR, Anand in the closing ceremony of the event in which Padma Sri. Kanwal Singh Chauhan, Padma awardee (Civilian award), Government of India and a progressive farmer, Sonipat, Haryana was the chief guest and Dr. K. K. Singh, ADG (Farm Engineering), ICAR was the President of the ceremony. Other dignitaries present includes Dr. Manoj Kumar, Joint Director, Regional Station, ICAR-CPRI centre, Modipuram, Mr. Ratnesh Kumar, Chief Administrative Officer, CPRI, Shimla, Dr. Devendra kumar, Principal scientist, CPRI, Shimla, Dr. R.K. Singh, Head, Seed technology, CPRI, Shimla and Mr. Bhayuk Sethi, Chairman, HiFi Group, Noida. DMAPR stall was one of the best attractions in which Medicinal and Aromatic Plants technologies, raw drugs and scientific literature with display of more than 50 live medicinal and aromatic plants were shown to various stakeholders. The 3-day event at CPRI centre, Modipuram, Uttar Pradesh in which large numbers of farmers, researchers, press and media visited the DMAPR stall. Some of the key persons visited the DMAPR stall includes, Dr. A.K. Singh, Deputy Director General (Horticulture and Crop Sciences), ICAR, New Delhi, Dr. S.K. Chakrabarti, Director, CPRI, Shimla, Dr. A. S. Panwar, Director, ICAR-IIFSR, Modipuram and former Directors, ICAR-CPRI, Shimla. Dr. R. Nagaraja Reddy, Scientist (Plant Breeding) and Mr. S.B. Prajapati, ICAR-DMAPR coordinated in organising the stall at the Krishidham Expo-2019.

(Source: ICAR-DMAPR, Anand)