

Three days training programme on motivation stress mitigation and skill improvement for skilled supporting staff

Three days training programme on “Motivation, stress mitigation and skill improvement for skilled supporting staff” was organised during 21 to 23 March, 2022 by HRD Cell, ICAR-Directorate of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants Research, Anand, Gujarat. The programme was inaugurated with a floral welcome of Dr. Satyanshu Kumar, Director, ICAR-DMAPR, Anand. Dr. Kumar, in his address emphasized on the importance of motivation, stress mitigation and skill improvement of skilled supporting staff. He said that there is need of such program to motivate and skill enhancement of our staff. Dr. P.L. Saran, Nodal Officer, HRD cell of ICR-DMAPR briefed about the training programme. Shri Ram Pal Verma, A.O. and Dr A.P. Trivedi, S.T.O., ICAR-DMAPR were coordinators of this programme. Total seven theoretical and three practical classes were arranged by diverse resource persons.

(Source: AKMU, ICAR-Directorate of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants Research, Anand, Gujarat).