One day farmer’s training on “Cultivation of remunerative MAPs” during November 26, 2019 at Malataj Village under Central Sector Scheme, DASD Calicut, Kerala has been organized by the ICAR- Directorate of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants Research (DMAPR), Anand, Gujarat. During this programme, farmers were addressed on Indian Constitution, especially the Preamble and Fundamental Rights and Duties by Dr. K. A. Kalariya. The training was succeed with lectures on MAPs. The aim of this training was to provide knowledge to farmers and transfer of technology through trainers with recent development in MAPs. The program was chaired by Dr. Satyajit Roy, Principal Scientist, DMAPR, Boriavi. Hundred farmers participated from Malataj as well as nearby villages. We have covered different aspects of MAPs viz., cultivation, QPM production, GACP, organic cultivation, primary processing and supply chain / marketing through lectures. The front line demonstration on Shatavari was visited by experts and farmers. The program was successfully conducted by Dr. K.A. Kalariya, Scientist, Dr. P.L. Saran, PI and Dr. R. P. Meena, Co-PI of Program.

(Source: AKMU, ICAR-Directorate of Medicinal and aromatic Plants Research, Anand, Gujarat)